Justices of the Peace for the County of Cork.

THE late Mr. A. J. Fetherstonhaugh, whose "True Story of the Two Chiefs of Dunboy," in the Journal of the Society of Antiquaries, 1894, formed so striking a contribution to the history of South-West Cork in the last century, had made considerable progress with the compilation of a list of the Justices of the Peace for the county, taken from the Lord Chancellor's Warrants for the issue of Commissions (Crown and Hanaper Office).

This task being unfinished at the time of Mr. Fetherstonhaugh's lamented death, I undertook its completion as far as the year 1800, and prepared the list for publication in the pages of this Journal, in which, I believe, it had been his intention that it should appear. Many of the warrants for such appointments are not now forthcoming, and the catalogue of Justices of the Peace has been supplemented from entries in the Hanaper Day Books, so that in some instances the dates given below are those of the issue of the commissions, and not of the warrants.

The earliest warrant is dated 1661, and some notices of commissions prior to this are prefixed.

H. F. BERRY, Member.

William de Barry, Lord de Barry, a commission of the peace, county Cork, 13 Henry VI., 1434-5 (Ferguson's Calendar, Exchequer Memoranda Rolls).

The Mayor of Cork (for the time being) inserted in a commission of the peace for Munster and Thomond, 2 Aug., 1560 (Fiant, Elizabeth, No. 263, Calendar).

The Earl of Ormonde and Ossory, Gerald Earl of Desmond, the Bishop of Cork, Warham Saint Leger, knight, the Mayor and Recorder of Cork, the Mayor of Youghall, and the Sovereign of Kynsale (for the time being), to be justices, commissioners and keepers of the peace for the county of Cork, etc., 8 March, 1565-6 (Fiant, Elizabeth, No. 828, Calendar).

COMMISSION OF THE PEACE FOR THE SEVERAL COUNTIES OF IRELAND, DATED 16th MARCH, 1654.
