The Evansons probably cleared the native population from the better land of their two estates (former McCarthy land from Clonee to Kealties) and former O'Mahony land Dromreagh, Ardogeena, Coolculaghta and brought in weavers probably from Armagh looking at names and Huguenots such as Dukelows.

&lt;sup>3</sup> It is surmised that the Ferguson farm went to Skuses then by marriage to Dukelows and was sold c 1930s by Thomas (Murt) Dukelow to Mike Hegarty of Kilcrohane who in turn sold to McCarthy the present owner The farm was bought in 1908 by Charles Dukelow from the Earl of Bandon for £272 it consisted of 39 acres and 0ne 15ht of 272 acres of commonage.
